Re: Consulting Services

Dear Mr. Taylor,

I wanted to write and thank you for assisting me with a complex contract dispute involving a subcontractor we recently concluded.

This dispute required an in-depth analysis of events which occurred during the contract performance that you were able to intelligently and comprehensively document and present to the Board in my defense.

Your efforts, along with the rest of the team, has been exceptional and is much appreciated.

I would recommend your services to anyone in a similar situation.

Thank you again,

Joe Woodington
